

Canadian Crafts Federation

Fédération canadienne des métiers d'art

ROBERT JEKYLL AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP IN CRAFT

The Canadian Crafts Federation / Fédération canadienne des métiers d'art (CCF/FCMA) invites the craft community to put forward nominations for the Robert Jekyll Award for Leadership in Craft. This award celebrates distinguished contributors to the craft sector, and it is one of the highest markers of exceptional commitment to development of the craft community in Canada.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS:

ROBERT JEKYLL AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP IN CRAFT

Eligible Nominees:

Nominees must be distinguished contributors to the craft sector, having dedicated significant time (suggested minimum: ten years) and energy to the movement and development of the contemporary Canadian craft sector. This may include artists, administrators, curators, collectors, educators, volunteers or any other category related directly to the craft field. Recipients will be chosen based on the impact they have had in advancing the respect for and recognition of the craft sector. National impact is preferred, however regional impact at a provincial or territorial level will be considered. Current Board members cannot be nominated with the exception of Past President.

Eligible Nominators:

Affiliate Members and Craft Council Members in good standing with the CCF/FCMA, past Robert Jekyll Award recipients, and the CCF/FCMA Board of Directors are eligible to submit a nomination. If you are a current member of a Provincial or Territorial Craft Council in Canada, then you are eligible to nominate a worthy candidate. Eligible organizations may submit up to (3) nominations per year. Previously unsuccessful nominations may be submitted for consideration a maximum of three consecutive years.

How to Nominate (Nominations must include) :

- A completed copy of the nomination form (see attached) which includes a letter of nomination, written by an eligible nominator or an authorized representative of an eligible nominating organization. The letter should answer the following questions:
 - Why do you believe individual is worthy of the award and recognition for lifetime achievement?
 - How has this person been involved in the support of craft?
 - What is nominee's connection to the nominating organization, if applicable?
- A copy of your Nominee's professional CV background in relation to the award

If your nominee should be chosen by the jury for the Award, you will be required to submit a high resolution photo of the nominee and a current, one paragraph biography. Nominations must be addressed to CCF/FCMA Director, Maegen Black, at maegen@canadiancraftsfederation.ca or by regular mail at: PO Box 1231, Fredericton, NB, E3B 5C8

(All regular mail nominations must arrive by the established deadline, not by postmark date.)

NOMINATION FORM

Please submit this completed form (scanned or with electronic signature applied) along with your completed nominaton letter to the CCF/FCMA Awards Committee by the established deadline.

Nomination evaluations will be based on, but not limited to, the nominees':

- Community development activity (including their presence in publications
- Professional practice, community recognitions, community impact, etc.)
- Governance activity (their leadership on boards or with craft based organizations, etc.
- Advocacy activities (at regional, provincial/territorial, and/or national level)

1 NOMINEE

Name:

Location:

Phone #:

Email:

Signature:

2 NOMINATED BY:

Name:

Organization:

Relationship
to Organization:

Phone #:

Email:

Relationship
to Nominee:

3 INCLUDE YOUR NOMINEE'S CV WHEN YOU SUBMIT THIS APPLICATION!

4 NOMINATION LETTER: